

AMERICA'S CENTRAL PORT
NOTICE OF NONDISCRIMINATION

America's Central Port District (the "Port") complies with Federal civil rights laws and is committed to providing its services and programs without discrimination in accordance with:

- Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, which prohibits discrimination based on race, color, or national origin (including language)
- Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, which prohibits discrimination based on disability.
- Title IX of the Educations Amendments Act of 1972, which prohibits discrimination based on sex in education programs or activities.
- Age Discrimination Act of 1975, which prohibits discrimination based on age.
- U.S. Department of Homeland Security regulation 6 C.F.R. Part 19, which prohibits discrimination based on religion in social service programs.

To File a Complaint

If you think that the Port has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way based on race, color, national origin (including language), disability, sex, age, or religion, you can file a complaint in person or by mail, fax, or email with:

Salina Alfaro
1635 W. First Street
Granite City, IL 62040

Email: salfaro@americascentralport.com
Phone: (618) 452-8433
Fax: (618) 452-3402

- The complaint should include your contact information, a written description of the circumstances, the date of the occurrence, any relevant documents, and summary of other steps taken, if any, to resolve this complaint.
- Information about this complaint process can be made available in alternative formats or languages through a request under the "Information and Services for Persons with Disabilities and Persons with Limited English Proficiency" section on Page 2 of this document.
- Complaints must be filed no later than 180 days after the date of the alleged discrimination.
- The Port will provide the filing party with written acknowledgement of the complaint within ten days of receipt.
- The complaint will be referred to the U.S. Department of Homeland Security Office for Civil Rights and Civil Liberties (CRCL) and the U.S. Department of Transportation Maritime Administration (MARAD), and the Port will notify the filing party of the referral within two weeks of the complaint.
- America's Central Port will maintain record of all complaints received and the status of the complaints in a secure spreadsheet.

You can also file a civil rights complaint directly with the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Office for Civil Rights and Civil Liberties (CRCL), or with the U.S. Department of Transportation, Maritime Administration (MARAD):

NOTICE OF NONDISCRIMINATION

If you choose to file directly with CRCL or MARAD in addition to filing with the Port, please notify the Port of this dual filing.

Retaliation

It is impermissible for an agent of the Port or other person to intimidate, threaten, coerce, or discriminate against any individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Title VI, or because the individual has made a complaint, testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under the DHS regulation implementing Title VI (6 CFR § 21.11(e)). Any individual alleging such harassment or intimidation may file a separate complaint with DHS.

Information and Services for Persons with Disabilities and Persons with Limited English Proficiency
